NEW YORK, Jan. 29.-The opening was Western roads influenced buying also, and among the grangers St. Paul led what movement there was in Western stocks.

The first hour's trading showed considerably more activity than yesterday; the buying was supposed to be of a good char-cidedly improved sentiment. The movement in the St. Louis & San Francisco shares was continued and reports were current connecting Chicago & Alton with the 'Frisco Company. Union Pacific declared the regular dividends. Trading was checked in the early afternoon by the selling of St. Paul around 179, the effect of which was that the morning's gain was lost. The feature of strength in the last hour was the heavy trading in the Erie

CATTLE IN SCANT SUPPLY AND DULL, SALES BEING DIFFICULT.

Hogs in Fair Demand and Sharply Higher-Sheep Quiet-Condition of Markets Elsewhere.

UNION STOCKYARDS, INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 29 .- Cattle-Receipts, 300; shipments small. The marketing of cattle continues of very small volume, there being a decrease of over 700 in four days compared with the same time last week, but a gain of nearly 300 over the corresponding time a year ago. The receipts to-day were exceedingly small, showing a decrease of about 60 compared with last Thursday, and a slight change compared with a year ago, and they were the lightest receipts at this time in were up to the standard in quality and fat. Notwithstanding the very small supply the mardemand from all buyers, and trading was life-less. Shipping orders were limited so that the trade, and it took local buyers a long time to find what they wanted at the prices they expected. Final sales indicate that the good cows and heifers, best steers and light butcher teers sold about steady compared with yesterday, but there was a very weak market for cattle weighing around 1,200 lbs and upwards that were not well finished, and medium cows and helfers also moved very slowly. The bull market did not develop any change, and calves old about the same as yesterday. There are not many stockers or feeders coming, and the business in that line, consequently, is small. There was nothing whatever encouraging in the development to-day, and it is not advisable to increase the marketing to any great extent. Quo-

Rumors Cut Some Figure, but Have Effect-Monetary Outlook Is More Hopeful.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.-The tone of today's stock market was altogether professional. Trading was somewhat in excess of yesterday, but was limited for the most part to the leading issues. A number of favorable features, such as the increased ease of sterling exchange and promise of an amicable solution of the Venezuelan situation, were ignored, as were also a number of excellent railroad returns. St. Paul, however, was not included in this latter class, this road showing a decrease of over $43,000 net for December. In point of activity and general interest St. Paul was the feature of the early seshigher, but occasionally certain kinds did not show the full decline. Some of the best hogs sion. It opened moderately strong in anticipation of favorable action by the direcopening, but the general market was not perceptibly better on the close. Sales ranged from $6.35 to $6.37½, and the bulk of the supply sold point brokers representing important interests sold freely, and the stock closed with a fractional loss. Announcement that nothing except routine business had been transacted at the board meeting did not come out until after the close of the market. Other early points of interest were Pennsylvania, in which there was extensive trading, St. Paul and the San Francisco issues, Delaware & Hudson and Amalgamated Copper. Later Missouri Pacific, the Eries and some other leading railway shares developed increased firmness. The movement in Erie in the afternoon attracted considerable attention and appeared to be based on a revival of "combination" reports which were current a fortnight ago. little improvement over a year ago. Entirely contrary to the indications at the close yesterday, the market opened with quite an active demand from all sources, and this was stimu-lated by the small supply and a fear that there would not be enough to complete all orders.

There was consequently very strong competition between packers and shippers, and salesmen had no trouble in regaining all of the loss sustained in prices yesterday. In fact, it was commonly reported that all of yesterday's loss, with a little interest, was recovered. The extreme price of the day was 12½ higher than yesterday, and the bulk of the supply sold a big dime

A BENEFIT TO BUSINESS.

Butter Steadies a Bit and Poultry Holds Firm-Southern Green Stuff Plentiful-Grain Markets.

There is little new to note in the local is an easier feeling in potatoes, but it has on a quiet demand and abundant holdings. reaching the market, and prices have a downward tendency. Florida tomatoes are in fair supply. The apple situation is disappointing to dealers. Calls are light, the country. Bananas are firmer. Oranges and lemons are in good supply and prices are easier. There is no change in the poultry situation, prices ruling steady, with a big demand for young chickens and a fair demand for hens and turkeys. Butter moves slowly, the reduction of Monday not having increased sales, but the prospects of colder weather prevented further reduc-tion of prices. Fresh eggs are arriving freely and prices tend downward. Wholesale grocers are quite busy, as traveling men are sending in good orders. Coffees continue easy, but are not quotably changed. Sugars are steady, as has been the case for some days. Canned goods are meeting with active demand and prices are hardening. Hog products of all kinds are moving well, with no changes in value in any line since Monday, when a slight advance was established. Trade with the dry goods houses is a little slow, weather conditions being unfavorable. The iron and hardware stores report trade as fully up to the usual January standard, and prices are steady and firm, with no indications of an early advance in any line.
